Attention: Chief Probation Officer

Prior to making a formal Complaint against a probation officer, you must read and sign the following:

You have the right to make a complaint against a probation officer for any improper probation conduct. California law requires this agency to have a procedure to investigate citizens' complaints. You have the right to a written description of this procedure. This agency may find after investigation that there is not enough evidence to warrant action on your complaint; even if this is the case, you have the right to make the complaint and have it investigated if you believe an officer behaved improperly. Citizen complaints and any reports or findings relating to complaints must be retained by this agency for at least five (5) years. It is against the law to make a complaint that you know to be false. If you make a complaint against an officer knowing that it is false, you can be prosecuted on a misdemeanor charge.

I have read this notice and wish to proceed with a complaint against an officer or officers of the Colusa County Probation Department.
