NEWS BRIEF: Public Meetings Scheduled for Maxwell Community Plan

What: The Colusa County Community Development Department invites residents of Maxwell and the surrounding areas to participate in the following public meetings to discuss the Maxwell Community Plan prior to adoption of the plan.

Planning Commission

When: Wednesday, June 4, 2025, at 9:00 AM

Where: Board Chambers, 546 Jay Street, Suite 108, Colusa, CA 95932

Board of Supervisors

When: Tuesday, June 17, 2025, at 9:00 AM

Where: Board Chambers, 546 Jay Street, Suite 108, Colusa, CA 95932

Why: The Maxwell Community Plan was created to address important issues such as workforce housing, economic strategies, community character, traffic increases, impacts to public services, and other concerns relevant to the Maxwell area and the development of the Site Reservoir. This is the final stage of the community plan public engagement process before the Board of Supervisors considers adoption of the plan. Public input is crucial to ensure the plan reflects the community's needs and aspirations.

Who Should Attend: All interested residents, business owners, and stakeholders in the Maxwell community are encouraged to attend.
