NEWS BRIEF: Board of Supervisors Public Hearing Scheduled for Maxwell Community Plan

What: The Colusa County Community Development Department invites residents of Maxwell and the surrounding areas to participate in the following public hearing regarding the adoption of the Maxwell Community Plan.

Board of Supervisors Public Hearing

When: Tuesday, November 4, 2025, at 9:30 AM

Where: Board Chambers, 546 Jay Street, Suite 108, Colusa, CA 95932

Why: The Maxwell Community Plan was created to address important issues such as workforce housing, economic strategies, community character, traffic increases, impacts to public services, and other concerns relevant to the Maxwell area and the development of the Sites Reservoir area. On October 1, 2025, the Planning Commission approved Resolution No. 25-06 recommending that the Board of Supervisors adopt the Maxwell Community Plan. The Board of Supervisors will hold a public hearing on November 4, 2025, to consider the adoption of the plan. Public input is crucial to ensure that the adopted plan and implementation strategies reflect community needs and aspirations.

Who Should Attend: All interested residents, business owners, and stakeholders in the Maxwell community are encouraged to attend.
