

New County Librarian

The Board of Supervisors and Chairman Marshall, welcome Stacey Costello, our new County Librarian. Stacey is returning back to Colusa County after obtaining her Master of Library and Informational Science at San Jose State University. Her work experience includes working with the Stanford University - Martin Luther King, Jr. Research and Education Institute and the Oakland Museum of California.

