Colusa County Sheriff's Sergeant Graduates from the FBI National Academy

For Immediate Release

June 19, 2015 11:00AM

Colusa County Sheriff's Sergeant Michael Bradwell was among 218 law enforcement officers to graduate June 12 from the Federal Bureau of Investigation's 260th session of its National Academy in Quantico, Virginia. Included in this class were members of law enforcement agencies from the District of Columbia, 20 international countries, five military organizations, and three federal civilian organizations.

Internationally known for its academic excellence, the National Academy, held at the FBI Academy, offers ten weeks of advanced communication, leadership, and fitness training for selected officers having proven records as professionals within their agencies.

Sergeant Bradwell has worked for the Sheriff's Office since 2006 and is currently assigned to the Field Services Division.
